The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Look at Your Credit Rating

Bill Craven, a county-supervisor turned-assemblyman, recently reported an amazing story regarding what can happen to you if publicly gathered personal information is kept secret.

It had to do with a young attorney who managed to get a credit agency report on what information was contained in his credit file.

He was shocked to find that he was listed as a short-order cook and his mother was listed as his wife.

His case is neither humorous nor unique, Craven reported.

But now that federal law permits consumers to be informed of the material in credit agency files consumers are discovering that gross errors and inaccuracies exist — and in many instances, consumers have been denied credit because of the inaccuracies.

While federal regulations control some activities of credit reporting agencies, the State Legislature is establishing more stringent guidelines as to how credit and investigative reports shall be handled.

The federal law gives the consumer the right to know the nature and substance of his credit file but does not give him the right to visually inspect it. The federal law enables an individual to recover financial damages when he is injured by inaccurate or misleading consumer reports, but does not set minimum recovery. Some damages have been so negligible that consumers have not been encouraged to seek reimbursement.

The legislature would give the consumer the right to visually inspect his own file and to set $300 as the minimum reimbursement a consumer can recover from a credit agency's noncompliance with the requirements of the law. The legislature also specifies under what circumstances a report shall be made and permits consumers to dispute information in their credit or investigative file even if an agency considers the dispute to be frivolous.

With money and credit so difficult to obtain in today's economy, it is important that accurate and necessary information be contained in the consumer's credit file, Craven says.

The new provisions should help ensure fair credit reporting by consumer credit agencies, he adds.

Anyone who is suffering from an erroneous credit rap is urged to demand from the dealer the name of the credit reporting firm. Then demand from that firm that it let you see the information it has gathered.

If relief is not promptly obtained, call the Department of Consumer Affairs. The telephone number is listed under State of California.

Uninvited Act on Graduation Show

It wasn't exactly what Monte Vista school authorities expected.

And it wasn't programed, either.

But at the height of the commencement program — about 10 p.m. Friday night — a lad roared into the center of the football field on his motorcycle, dismounted, bent over to show his rear to the audience seated in the stands facing the field.

What made the matter worse, the rider was completely nude.

Sheriff's deputies were given the name of a suspect said to have been recognized by several of the students.

It was not indicated whether those who recognized him were male or female.

GOP 'Fun-Raiser' In S.V. Friday

One in a series of "Mini Fun Raisers" sponsored by the San Diego County Republican Central Committee, will be held Friday at the Rancho San Diego Recreation Center, 2730 Cliffside ave., in Spring Valley. Party time is 7:30-11:30 p.m.

The site is just south of Monte Vista High school on Sweetwater Springs blvd.

Food, cocktails, dancing, door prizes, entertainment and fun is promised Republican supporters, according to Mrs. Norma Scheuneman, one of the sponsors of the "Fun Raiser." Danny Hale's band will provide music for dancing.

"We hope to establish a broader base for the Republican Party and to introduce fellow Republicans at gatherings they can afford.

"We also hope to raise a minimum fund for supporting the financial needs of the Central Committee operating fund," she said.

Contributors will pay $25 a couple which includes all. Volunteer participation and donated door prizes will make the social evening an outstanding value, she added.

"It will be an ideal fun night out among friends," she said.

Reservations: Mrs. Scheuneman at 447-0249 or 447-6170.

THE FAIREST — Becky Lynn Durick, of Vista, who is the current Fairest of the Fair, visits local newspapers with a personal invitation to attend this year's edition of the Southern California Exposition being held at the Del Mar Fair grounds June 23-July 6.
With her is Tommy Hernandez who has been Don Diego, the representative of the Expo for more than a decade. Hernandez recently returned from Spain where he completed three motion pictures. On the left is Max Goodwin, editor-publisher of this newspaper.

Interim Fire Protection Approved for Vista La Mesa

The Lemon Grove Fire Protection District may be requested to supply structural fire protection to the Vista La Mesa area — or the area may call on the City of La Mesa. Another choice, an improbable one, the City of San Diego may get the request.

The need for getting fire protection stems from the County Board of Supervisors decision to cease providing protection through the California Division of Forestry in unincorporated areas outside any fire district.

Parts of Vista La Mesa have been given Forestry protection over the years but this aid was scheduled to end on June 30 when the Board of Supervisors' funding for that purpose comes to an end.

Contingency Basis

At the Lemon Grove Fire Protection District's June 9 meeting, Michael A. Perkins, administrative assistant to Supervisor Dick Brown said that supervisors would probably extend forestry protection for another year on a contingency basis to permit the area to annex to existing cities or fire districts, or to create volunteer fire departments.

It is probable that the area will join La Mesa since it wraps around the southwest section of that city. Part of it is north of University ave. which would make it nearly impossible for Lemon Grove to provide protection.

Any annextion would have to be approved by LAFO (Local Agency Formation Commission) and its philosophy has been to avert splitting communities up.

Incorporation Problem

Another problem facing Vista La Mesa is Lemon Grove's coming election for incorporation. Presumably, the proposed city's boundaries would be opened to include Vista La Mesa if it opted for Lemon Grove fire protection.

In any case, the board of supervisors indicated that the extension, if granted, would be on the condition that Vista La Mesa comes to agreement on the direction it wished to go.

But there'll be no county help at all beyond June 30, 1976.

Youths in Park Face Marijuana Charges

Robert Eugene McQuery, 19, of 1105 Jamacha lane, Spring Valley, was arrested June 9 about 8:30 p.m. when a sheriff's deputies on patrol found him, and three juveniles in Mt. Helix County Park with a container of beer which had been hidden partly behind a tire of the car.

Investigation turned up two more containers, three bags of marijuana weighing 95 grams, and a roach clip.

McQuery was charged with possession of alcohol and possession of marijuana for sale.

The 17-year old Spring Valley youth was charged with possession of alcohol, possession of marijuana and of marijuana paraphernalia.

Two San Diego girls standing in the group, claimed they had just met the youths and knew nothing of the alcohol or marijuana and were released. They were 16 and 17 years old.

McQuery will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court.

Light Shower Falls

It brings the total to 14.38 for the season which ends June 30.

Last year, same period, the total was 8.64.

RecVehicle Warning Issued by Sheriff

A stern warning to those operating on and off road recreational-type vehicles has been issued by Sheriff's deputies in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley areas.

Beginning this week the men will take energetic action against motorcycles with loud exhausts and those not properly possessed of spark suppressors, muffling device or registrations.

Recreation vehicles may not be ridden on private, county or state property without written consent. They may not be ridden along Sweetwater or Jamacha rds. at all but may be ridden in the Paradise Hills area.

Vehicles, either on road or off road, without proof of ownership, may be impounded, officers said.

Citation tickets will be issued to drivers of any vehicle not meeting the noise or equipment standards.

Many complaints have been registered by neighbors regarding owners of noise-making vehicles. Citations will be issued to those responsible for the noise, he added.

Dog License, Impound Fees to Rise in July

Beginning July 1, it's going to cost a little more to have your dog licensed, and it's going to cost a lot more if your dog is impounded by the County's animal regulation division.

The increase in costs is necessary, according to Russ Schmidt, chief of animal regulations, in order to help make the County's program self-sustaining.

"In an effort to put the burden of cost of this program on the offender, the impound fee will be raised from $5 to $20 beginning July 1," he said.

The impound fee must be paid by a dog owner, to retrieve a dog which has been picked up running loose by animal regulation officers and impounded.

Schmidt stressed that dog owners do have until July 1 to purchase licenses at the old rates. After July 1 it's going to cost more to license dogs and to retrieve them from the dog County shelters.

Rates Given

To have a male dog or a spayed female dog licensed for one year, it will cost $6 instead of $5 beginning July 1. A license for an unspayed female dog will cost $12 instead of $10.

A one and a half year license for males and spayed females will cost $8 instead of $7.50 and unspayed female one and a half year licenses will run $16 instead of $15.

Two year licenses for males and spayed females will cost $10 instead of $9; unspayed females will cost $20 instead of $18.

A two and a half year license for males and spayed females will cost $12 instead of $11.50; unspayed females will run $24 instead of $23.

The County Board of Supervisors has approved an increase in dog licensing and impound fees. The County is responsible for animal regulation in Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, the cities of San Diego, Carlsbad, San Marcos, Vista, Del Mar, Imperial Beach and all unincorporated areas of County.

For specific information about licenses call 297-3708 in Central County areas or 262-0795 in the South County.

Flood Plain Group Sets July 3 Meet

The Zone 3 Advisory Commission (Spring Valley-La Mesa) of the San Diego County Flood Control District will hold a public meeting July 3 to discuss a draft report on the comprehensive plan for flood control and drainage in the Sweetwater River drainage basin.

The meeting will begin at 2 p.m. in the board room of the Helix Water District office located at 8111 University ave. in La Mesa.

The draft plan will be available for review at the public counter of the Department of Sanitation and Flood Control, Building 2, County Operations Center, located at 5555 Overland avenue in San Diego.

Jewelry Taken

Steven Carl Hicks, of 1429 Sweetwater ln., Spring Valley, reported that he had been burglarized of items valued at $400 on June 11 while he was sleeping.

13 pieces of jewelry including rings, beads and puka shells, and a tool box comprised the loot, he said.

Ramp Maps Displayed

Color maps of the Lemon Grove off-ramp, due to be finished late this year or early next, are on display in the office of this newspaper at 7834 Lester ave., Lemon Grove.

There is also on display a map of the Campo-Spring st. ramp.

The entire project is due for completion about the middle of next year, CALTRANS spokesmen said.

The maps may be viewed daily 8 a.m.-5 p.m. except Saturday.

Family Matter

Suspect Arrested In Chula Vista After S.V. Holdup

It was strictly a family affair.

A man pointed a .38 cal. Colt revolver at Edward L. Hall, 50, operator of the La Presa Liquor store at 539 Grand ave., Spring Valley and ordered him to "give me the money."

Not satisfied with the $149 or so he demanded the change, too. Then he took Hall's wallet.

As the suspect fled in his auto, Hall fired a pistol at the car.

After reporting the robbery to the police, it was a matter of a few minutes before officers of the CHP and deputy sheriff's men converged on a car at State 805 and L st., Chula Vista which answered the description of the one used in the holdup.

Police accused Juan Manuel Meza, 22, of Tijuana. In the car were his wife, Rebecca Judith Mesa, 21, their infant son, and Juan's brother Carlos Guillen Meza, 18.

Fall Kills Man

Elmer M. Michelsen, 78, of 7810 Bancroft st., Spring Valley was pronounced dead on arrival at Grossmont hospital Tuesday at 3 p.m. after he fell from the roof of his home.

He is reported to have fallen on his head when he slipped as he was replacing shingles on his roof.

Rezone Request Up for Study

The County of San Diego has received a draft environmental impact report (EIR) for Eastview Estates.

Eastview Estates involves the rezoning of 59.27 acres of land from LC to R-1-B and R-1 (15) to be subdivided into 99 lots.

The property is located north of Jamacha blvd. on the east side of Sangamon ave., in Spring Valley.

The draft EIR for this project is available for review at the County's Office of Environmental Management, 1600 Pacific Highway; and at the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley County Libraries.

All comments on this draft EIR must be submitted in writing to the County's Office of Environmental Management by July 7.

Garden Plot Pot Brings Charge

Ronald Wayne Houser, 18, 9019 Frederick st., Spring Valley, was charged on June 10 with cultivation of marijuana by sheriff's deputies who observed 53 plants in the back yard of the residence occupied by Houser.

Also arrested was his 16-year old companion.

Houser will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court. The companion faces a juvenile court.

Find Volkswagen; Smash Up Same

Four teenagers ran afoul of the law after they allegedly stole a red VW last week that was registered to Michael Barclay of 3126 Central, Spring Valley.

Police reports indicate that Wayne Ray Stenberg, 18, of San Diego admitted that he took the car in the Mt. Vernon area of Lemon Grove on Thursday. He drove it to the Ramon st. area of Spring Valley and left it overnight.

Friday, it was reported, Fleming, together with a 14-year old male and two females, 13 and 14, drove the car to the 7000 block of San Miguel in Lemon Grove where it was wrecked. The 14-year old male was said to have been driving at the time.

Stenberg was transported to County jail; the 14-year old male was referred to juvenile authorities and the girls were released to their parents.

The VW owner had left the key in the ignition switch when it was taken.

Stenberg will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court on a charge of taking a vehicle for temporary use.

Water Workers Granted 7.2% Wage Package

Helix Water District employees were granted a 1975-76 fiscal year wage package totaling a 7.2 per cent increase over the existing payroll in action taken last week by the agency's board of directors.

The package includes a flat $25 monthly increase for each of the 119 full-time non-administrative employees, plus a 2.5 per cent increase and improved retirement benefits.

With anticipated merit raises, usually granted January 1, the added wage-and-benefit program will increase the District's annual budget by $104,500.

Earl McAdams
New La Presa Principal

La Presa Teacher Chosen School's New Principal

Earl McAdams, teacher with 23 years experience in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District, has been appointed principal of La Presa Jr. High in Spring Valley.

The appointment, announced by the Board of Education June 3, is effective in July.

McAdams replaces Roy Williams, who has been re-assigned as the new head administrator at Parkway Jr. High in La Mesa.

McAdams, born in Wyoming, received his B.A. degree from UCLA in 1949 and his M.A. from San Diego State University in 1963. He came to the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District as a junior high teacher in 1951.

He taught physical education, mathematics, and industrial arts at La Mesa Junior High from 1951 to 1969. McAdams was assigned to La Presa Junior High School the year it opened in 1969-70 school year and later became one of five lead teachers at that school.

McAdams served in the U.S. Navy from 1943 to 1946. He and his wife, Pat, live in the Jamul area. They have three sons, ages 19, 22, and 24.

Homecoming Damp

The homecoming of Veda M. Lerew, of 1615 La Corta st. Lemon Grove, was not a happy one.

During her absence someone shoved her garden hose into the vent of her dryer and turned the water full on.

When she got home about 10 a.m. Friday water was running from her house, she told sheriff's deputies.

Workmen, cleaning up the flood damage and replacing the padding beneath the carpeting, estimated that their bill would be about $400.

13-Year Old Dog Walker Raped

A 13-year old Spring Valley girl, letting her dog out as she was getting ready for bed, told sheriff's deputies that she was grabbed by a man and raped Sunday morning about 12:30.

She said that the assailant, a white male about 30, and fat, put his hand over her mouth to keep her from screaming as she walked into the yard through a sliding door.

She was transported to Grossmont hospital where doctors confirmed the rape and said the girl suffered considerable injuries.

Sups Begin L.G. City Proceedings

The County Board of Supervisors initiated proceedings Tuesday for the incorporation of Lemon Grove and directed the Citizens Committee for Incorporation to obtain signatures representing at least five per cent of the voters, using the L.G. Fire District boundaries as the temporary limits.

If brought to an election, it would be held on June 8, 1976. If successful the city would be incorporated on July 4, 1976 on the country's 200th birthdate.

Church News Stops Presses To Regroup

San Diego Church News, a newspaper sponsored by Christian businessmen and local congregations, is suspending publication temporarily to reorganize and raise needed funds.

The publication appeared first in January, published by the San Diego Evangelical Association.

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley churches have lent financial support this year for the newspaper project. Among the contributors participating with direct funds or through membership in the Evangelical Association are Trinity Baptist, Bancroft Baptist, La Presa Community, Mt. Miguel Covenant, Spring Valley Friends, Spring Valley Nazarene, Lemon Grove First Baptist, Monterey Heights Baptist, Skyline Wesleyan and the Christian Church.

Law Suspends Drivers' Licenses Despite Fault

Requests for hearings on driver license suspensions mandated by California's new Compulsory Financial Responsibility Law are averaging more than 700 a month, State Motor Vehicles Director Herman Sillas announced.

Most of the requests are turned down or withdrawn, Sillas said, because the law does not provide for hearings in a majority of the cases.

This is taken by Sillas as evidence that many California motorists do not fully understand the intent of the new Compulsory Financial Responsibility Law.

But the fault has nothing to do with the suspension actions DMV must take, he pointed out. He said that only the courts may determine who was at fault for a particular accident.

"Under the new law, we take suspension actions for only two reasons: failure to report the accident to DMV when it is in fact a reportable accident, or failure to furnish proof of financial responsibility following the accident."

Sillas defined a reportable accident as one which originates on a public street or highway and someone suffers property damage in excess of $250, or someone is injured or killed.

INSTALLED TREASURER — Mrs. Mary Wagner of Lemon Grove, charter member of Court Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross Church, was installed as treasurer of the San Diego Deanery, Council of Catholic Women, Monday at St. Rita's Hall. Home Rangers Class Offered At UCSD

"Oh give me a home, Where the goats and sheep roam, where the geese and veal calves play."

That variation of the American folk song may become the theme song for students signing up for a UCSD extension course which begins Monday.

The class titled "Suburban Homesteading" is a how-to on the selection, housing, feeding and management of a variety of domestic animals up to, but not including steers.

Residents of suburban and outlying areas who pay the $54 course fee will be taught how to raise chickens, rabbits, goats, sheep, ducks, geese, pigs and veal calves.

The class will be advised of zoning and health regulations pertaining to particular districts.

Teacher is animal handler Elizabeth Robertson whose career in livestock spans from rural country life in South America to goat-raising in North County.

Davis YMCA Seeking Swimmers, Campers

Fitness-conscious people six months to sixty years or over can find something to improve their total body fitness at the Davis Family YMCA in La Mesa. Class enrollment is now in progress at the local branch for summer sessions.

Openings still exist at the Davis Y, which serves East County communities including Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

A popular attraction is the "Water Babies" classes for moms and babies, according to Craig Juleen, physical director. They start at age six months.

Y class swimmers range from "Water Babies" to senior citizens.

Juleen expects the popular swim classes to be filled this summer and suggests interested parties enroll as soon as possible.

Another summer program is the Davis Day Camp for young people, six through eleven. Day camp includes trips to such places as Cabrillo National Monument, Balboa Park, museums, Scripps Institute and the San Diego Zoo.

Day campers also fish, in sports, crafts and nature swim, go horseback riding, have cookouts and participate studies.

County Gets Break On Milk Prices

The County had been paying nine cents per one half-pint of milk used by youths housed at Juvenile Hall, Las Colinas Girls Ranch, and Hillcrest Receiving Home.

Under a special milk program the state of California will reimburse the County with a nickel for every one-half pint used at the three facilities.

The new program will lower milk costs for the County by about $15,000 a year.

The County uses about 25,000 one-half pints of milk a month at the three facilities.

All children at the three sites are served milk at no separate charge regardless of race, color or natural origin, and there is no discrimination in the course of the milk service.

H.S. District Expects High Summer Load

12,000 students ar expected to enroll in classes at nine Grossmont Union High School District schools this summer.

Summer classes are divided into three sessions beginning next week, according to District spokesman Carol Huntington.

The first session begins Monday and runs through August 1. Session Two overlaps from July 10 through August 26 and a three-week third session in August fills out the schedule.

In addition to the 8 a.m. to noon daily classes, evening sessions are offered at Grossmont and El Capitan high schools.

Local school offices have a list of summer course offerings.

SCHOOL VOLUNTEERS

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE
LA MESA-SPRING VALLEY SCHOOL DISTRICT

THANKS YOU

During the 1974-75 school year, many people including mothers, fathers, retirees, and other citizens have been generous with their time, energy, and talents in assisting educators in numerous ways with the instruction of children. The spirit as well as the added "hands" has contributed much to better education of students in the district. Assistance well beyond the financial means of the district has aided the learning of individuals and groups of youngsters.

The Board of Education wishes to take this opportunity to publicly thank each volunteer for the assistance provided and recognize the significant difference volunteers have made in providing more effective education for young people.

NOW Women to Let Men Run It On October 29

October 29 has been set aside by members of the California chapter of the feminist National Organization for Women (NOW) as a nationwide "Non-Support Strike Day" for women.

Southern California NOW Coordinator Linda D'Addario of La Jolla said that the strike has been planned to "emphasize the enormous support women in this country give to the 'system' that continually ignores, oppresses, rapes, brutalizes, imprisons, confines and restricts" women.

In addition to a call for women to walk off their jobs on October 29, the NOW chapter is asking for a one-day departure from such pastimes as spending money, parenting or babysitting. NOW urges women to use the day to deny support of male egos or institutions which are not sympathetic to the feminist movement.

"If it's a man's world," NOW concludes, "they can run it."

Valley Woman Opens Hawaiian Gift Shop

A Spring Valley woman from Honolulu has opened a Polynesian style floral and gift store in El Cajon.

Rena Mahoe of 10770 Jamacha blvd., Spring Valley, does arrangements for parties, banquets, socials and clubs. She specializes in real Hawaiian style leis for luaus, graduations and other occasions.

She can also put Hawaiian touches to weddings with floral arrangements and other special effects up to and including a Hawaiian duet who will sing a wedding song in English or Hawaiian.

Her store, the Hawaiian Hut Florist and Gift Shop, is located at 844 E. Washington, El Cajon.

Lodge 'Bar-B Que' Is June 29

A serving of barbecue style chicken is the order of the day on Sunday, June 29 when the Mesa Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 409 presents its annual "Bar-B-Que Dinner."

The yearly fund-raiser will be held from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. at the Lemon Grove V.F.W. Hall at 2885 Imperial ave.

Noble Grand Mrs. Lee Brothers said that the public is invited to attend and that tickets are available from all officers of the Lodge.

General chairmen for the affair are Mrs. Louise Hopson and Mrs. Daisy Beatty.

VFW Women Elected

Mrs. Andrew Esparza, past president of the Don Diego Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary no. 7420, has been elected president of the 30 auxiliaries of San Diego County.

Mrs. George Bellon of Kearney Mesa auxiliary is vice president and Mrs. Arthur Patino of the Encanto auxiliary is jr. vice president.

Other officers are: Mrs. Milton Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. John Bartichek, chaplain; Mrs. Ernest Araujo, guard, and Mrs. Marcus King, 3-year trustee.

Belly Dance at Y

East County women may learn the art of belly dancing at the John A. Davis Family YMCA, 8881 Dallas st., La Mesa, beginning next week.

Instructor Judy Timmerman, who taught belly dancing for six years in Turkey, feels belly dancing can be the start of a more healthy and active life. Classes are currently available Tuesday morning and Wednesday night.

Boos and Hisses Welcome At 'Olde Theatre' Drama

Olde Tyme Theatre Productions, in cooperation with the La Mesa Recreation Department, opened a special four performance engagement of "Abby's Plight," or "Which is a Fate Worse Than Death," an old fashioned musical melodrama, at the Ben Polak Fine Arts Center, 8053 University ave., La Mesa last weekend. Final performances are scheduled for Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m.

The story is typical of old time melodrama, according to author/producer Ted Budgen. It centers around the Widow Hardtimes (Adele Garland) and her sweet, innocent daughter, dear Abby (Kimberly Garland) in their desperate struggle against the villian, Ebeneezer Really Four (Robert T. Douglas).

Ma and Abby can't pay the mortgage and will be evicted, if the villian gets his way. He will, of course, settle for Abby instead of the money.

"Abby's Plight" is family entertainment. Children of all ages enjoy getting involved in the 'audience participation' of booing, cheering, and hissing, according to the producer.

General admission is $2.50. Students, military and senior citizens are charged $1.75. Reservations can be made at 239-0892.

Teen Dance Tickets Schedule Changed

Tickets will be available to teen-agers for the June 27th dance from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily from June 23 to June 27, it was announced by Dick Bales, chairman of the monthly teen dances sponsored by the Lemon Grove V.F.W. Post 2082.

Tickets will be available at both the V.F.W. Hall at 2885 Imperial ave., in Lemon Grove and the L.G. Moose Lodge no. 1783, 752 Grand ave., Spring Valley.

All dancers must acquire tickets in advance as none will be available at the door.

Legal Secretaries Set Monthly Gathering

Group insurance and other group benefits are topics of discussion scheduled for the monthly membership meeting of the San Diego Legal Secretaries Association.

The meeting is held Monday at Tortilla Flats, 887 Camino Del Rio South, and is preceded by a social hour at 5:30 p.m. Dinner is served at 6:30 p.m.

Volunteer Cat Licensing May Save Your Pet

Cat owners who bitterly complain when their cats are lost forever are not taking advantage of a voluntary licensing program available from the San Diego County Humane Society and S.P.C.A. says Executive Director, Captain Bill Virden.

In 1971 the Society set up a registration program on a voluntary basis. Any County resident may have their cat registered for a $4 fee which covers a four year period. Services for the fee include individually numbered tags which identify the owner's telephone number on one side and the local S.P.C.A. chapter on the other.

Given with the tag is a safety collar which stretches to release the cat if it is caught on a protrusion when climbing.

S.P.C.A. promptly notifies the owner when the lost registered cat is found and reported to the Society.

Some 4,000 cats are presently registered. The County chapter receives four or five calls a week relative to lost cats, they report.

Virden says that most of the lost cats live within a block of the finders' residence and that many people simply take the cat home. In any event, the Society makes an immediate call to the owner telling them the whereabouts of their cat.

Puppet Craft Taught in L.M.

Creating hand puppets from household items is the subject matter of a new class to be taught for children at the La Mesa Recreation Center beginning July 12.

Children 8 through 12 will be taught how to make puppets from scraps, plastic bottles, cartons, marbles or anything a child's imagination can dream up.

Open registration for this and a variety of other classes is held from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. June 17-20 at the center located at 4975 Memorial dr.

HOME-COOKED

This Week's RECIPE

Informal Wedding Salute is Barbecue

While many traditions have fallen by the wayside, June is still by far the favorite month for weddings. Naturally everyone wants to share in the festivities for the happy couple. Luncheons, brunches and dinners vie for time on the pair's pre-nuptial calendar, sometimes leaving them exhausted and short-tempered when the Big Day arrives.

Perhaps one of the nicest things you can do for an about-to-be-married couple is to offer them a change from the more formal gatherings to which they will be beckoned. Let them kick off their shoes and relax at a bridal party barbecue! Everyone loves an outdoor party . . . the active can organize the softball game . . . the sedate can chat quietly and bask in the sunshine . . . children can run free without worry . . . and the host will find it generally much easier and more economical than having a formal meal.

For those who think of cook-outs for only the most casual of events, home economists suggest the following bridal barbecue menu:

Liver-Anchovy Tidbits— Wrap half a chicken liver with an anchovy filet; follow with a strip of bacon. Secure it with a toothpick and broil until bacon is brown.

Curry Mini Bites— Combine ground beef with egg for binding; season to taste with curry powder, salt and pepper. Form into small ball; broil.

Chicken Teriyaki—Marinate chicken pieces 3-4 hours in ½ cup soy sauce, 2 tablespoons ginger and 3 tablespoons sherry. Broil, basting with marinate.

Destruction Derby Carded at Cajon Oval

Devilish drivers who delight in smashing up anything in range will return to Cajon Speedway Saturday night in the second destruction derby of the season.

A field of 20 well-spent stock cars, some of them showing scars of other engagements, will compete in a free-for-all following the regular super stock car program.

Qualifications for more than 60 super stocks will begin at 6:30 with the four-lay trophy dash set for 8 p.m.

Race fans at Cajon probably feel the destruction derby fellows will have to go some to match the high-speed crashes which have been turning up in the 40-lap main events.

Two weeks ago, George Esau plowed into Ed Hale and then the wall. Last week, five cars were stacked up in the south corner. Fortunately, there were no injuries but the damage was similar to that produced in bashing derbies.

Last week Tim Biggers of El Cajon became the second man this season to win three main events at Cajon Speedway.

The 34-year old absestos contractor maneuvered around the oval which had been covered with oil, wrecked automobiles and sprinkled with dirt at times to beat runner-up Pat McIntyre of Spring Valley by three car lengths in 12 minutes, 32.56 seconds in the 40-lap feature.

Winston Stock Week Away at Gardena Track

GARDENA — Along with a full schedule this weekend, Ascot Park fans will be looking ahead a week to the Winston West Grand National Late-Model Stock Cars on the half-mile dirt oval on Sunday evening June 29.

Beforehand, off-road superstar Rick Mears of Bakersfield will lead a large field of sprint buggies and Baja sedans this Saturday night (June 21) in the SCIDA Sprint Buggy and Sedan racing program on the wild steeplechase course.

In the coming Grand National competition, three prominent early entries for the "Gardena 100" include Ivan Baldwin of Modesto, Jim Insolo of Mission Hills, and Chuck Wahl of Burbank. Each has captured a major West Coast race.

Ascot schedule:

Fri. — Super Stock Open Competition plus street stocks 8 p.m.

Sat. — SCIDA Sprint Buggies and Baja Sedans 8 p.m.

Sun. — FEAR Figure-8 Stocks plus Demolition Derby 8 p.m.

Mon. — High School Motocross (SAM) 7:30 p.m.

Wed. — Motocross (CMC) 7:30 p.m.

Jesus Munoz Retires

TIJUANA — Veteran jockey Jesus Munoz has retired and will become an official at Caliente Race Track.

Munoz, 29, will serve an apprenticeship period and then become a patrol judge and performance analyst, assisting the younger riders at the border track.

Plans Laid for 4th Tub Race At Mission Bay

It's time to pull out the stoppers, plug up the holes and start building a racing bathtub for this year's America's Finest City Cup Bathtub Race" scheduled for August 17 at Crown Point Shores in Mission Bay Park.

Entries will be made out of geunine metal, porcelain or fiberglass.

Functional modification of the tubs is not permitted, but individual design above the waterline is encouraged.

All tubs must be powered by outboard engines not exceeding 7½ horsepower. The race will be run over a salalom course with two quarter-mile laps.

The fourth annual race is the highlight of a day-long family picnic at Crown Point Shores. Games and contests are also on the day's agenda.

There is no entry fee for the tub race or picnic. The free event is sponsored by Mission Bay Associates and Farrell's.

Aztecs Get 3, Lose 4 Players

Three of San Diego's top baseball players have signed letters of intent to play for San Diego State next season, coach Jim Dietz announced.

The best of the players is catcher Ralph Billings from Mira Costa College in Oceanside. Billings was first team All-Desert Conference, first team All-State and first team Junior College All-America. He hit .39 with 19 RBI and three home runs in 28 games. He is an excellent defensive catcher with an exceptionally strong arm.

The other two players are outfielder Ken Rutan from Mar Vista High School and third basman Tony Camara from Bonita Vista High School.

San Diego State had four players taken in last week's baseball draft. First baseman Jim Skaalen was taken on the 12th round by the Baltimore Orioles, shortstop Kurt Wittmayer on the 20th round by the San Diego Padres, pitcher Greg Wilkes on the 21st round by the Padres and pitcher Marty French on the 24th round by the Padres.

USD Gridders To Travel Less

University of San Diego second year football coach Dick Logan can look to the home field advantage in seven of ten games set for the Toreros during the 1975 grid season.

The schedule includes an opening contest with the USD alumni, September 6. Other home games are with Redlands, LaVerne, Pomona-Pitzer, Azusa Pacific, US International University and Cal Lutheran.

USD, which played seven of its eleven games away from home last year, travels only to Cal State Northridge, Whittier and St. Mary's this season. All games are on Saturday.

The Toreros won three and lost eight during Logan's first campaign as head coach with 22 freshmen listed among the team's 44 players.

The schedule:

Sept. 6, Alumni, 1.
Sept. 13, Redlands, 7:30.
Sept. 27, LaVerne, 7:30.
Oct. 4, at Cal State Northridge, 7:30.
Oct. 11, at Whittier, 7:30.
Oct. 18, Pomona-Pitzer, 7:30
Oct. 25, Azusa Pacific, 7:30.
Nov. 1, USIU (Homecoming)
Nov. 8, Cal Lutheran, 7:30
Nov. 15, at St. Mary's, 1

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

It came at one of those weak moments in one's life when his inner judgment gets caught napping and his free spirit says, "Why not?"

My Partner and I were headed out for the Old Miramar place to chaw the fat with Big John Elliott. He's got a rodeo coming up in August and the idea was to get some early doings down on paper.

Well, as luck would have it, Big John Elliott was off the place when me and my pard got there.

I was runnin' with my favorite little monster, son and heir at the time. You know the kid. Tow-headed, freckles, mischievous blue eyes and a broken tooth grin about four yards wide. Sometimes he answers to the name "Tommy" and sometimes he doesn't answer at all.

He's so fond of trouble, he runs halfway there to meet it. There are times when it takes a lot more than understanding to be his dad. It takes stamina.

Tommy is nine, going on 35, and adventure is his game. The reason we were partners that morning was because of flying. He was burying a squirrel our cat, Ms. Fussy-Budget, had killed and the dirt was flying out of his mother's philodendron patch.

"Get that kid out of here before I bury the wrong rat," she thundered in sweet reason. "Some day I'm gonna . . ." Her words were lost as we piled in the car and made tracks out of there.

Billy Cronkite was shoein' horses when we got to Miramar Ranch. He's a tall, good looking, easy going hombre working as a top hand for Big John Elliott.. He looks like a cowboy except he favors a baseball cap instead of one of those ten gallon jobs John Wayne made famous.

Billy had a mouth full of horse shoe nails when I walked up and asked about Big John.

"Ummra raarrra scconndeddo riis moornnne," he answered, which was a mouthful for Billy even when doesn't have a handful of horseshoe nails between his teeth.

"Hellbeeebkkk inaa courrr rrssooo," mumbled Billy.

I nodded and said, "Yeah, certainly does look like a nice day."

Billy took the nails out of his mouth and smiled. "Big John's gone up to Escondido for some horses. He won't be back for an hour or so," he repeated. Then, looking at Tommy, he added, "Why don't you go riding while you're waiting. The time will pass in no time."

That was all Tommy needed. "Can we, Dad? Can we? Huh? Can we? Please."

In less time than it takes to tell about it, a sweet little girl saddled two horses and brought them out for us to ride. She helped Tommy into his saddle, then whispered to me, "No sir, you get on from the other side." Then when I had difficulty reaching the stirrup, she suggested, "You can climb up easier over there off of fat man's log."

Finally, Tommy and I hit the trail at a fast . . . walk. "Can't we gallop, daddy," he asked, slapping his mount on the rump and galloping ahead of me. "Come on I'll race you to the trees."

My horse, appropriately named "Charlie" by the way, took off after Tommy and his speedy steed. I did the only sensible thing I could do. I gripped the saddle horn with both hands and yelled, "Tommmmyiii."

He reined in, blocking the trail and effectively stopping Charlie horse. I grabbed my reins, eased my wounded parts a little by standing up in the stirrups and said, "Tommy, it isn't smart to go galloping over country you don't know. We'll walk these horses till we get to know where we are."

"O.K. Dad," she said, and galloped off again. At least this time I hung onto the reins when I clamped my death grip on the saddle horn.

An hour and much pain later Billy Cronkite and Tommy helped me to my car. "It wasn't the riding," I lied. "I think I pulled a groin muscle getting off old Charlie horse."

"Yeah," agreed Billy Cronkite with an irreverent grin. "It couldn't have been old Charlie horse. He's as gentle as a rocking chair."

"I don't think I'll wait for John," I said. "I'll see him later about your August rodeo. Open to the public and top cowboys and all that, huh? Sounds pretty good. I'll . . . I'll be back."

"Can I come with you, Daddy? We can go riding again. Next time we'll know the land and we can gallop more. Can we, Daddy? Huh? Can we?

I smiled through my pain, but in my mind I had his answer. "In a pig's ear," I told myself.

Smilers Lead In Bobby Sox Play

In the Lemon Grove Bobby Sox minors, the Smilers continue to be in the lead, with the Chargers and Ringers in a tie for second place. The Smilers team is managed by Mrs. Kathy Coggins, and coached by Al Carter and Ron Lauer.

There is a tie for first place in the majors, between the Fashionettes and Wheelers who meet today in a game at 5:30 at Lemon Grove Jr. High field. The Wheelers, sponsored by Lemon Grove Rotary, is managed by Carol Mott and coached by John Linn and Gill Gilmore.

Saturday's highlight game was between the second place team, Charmers and the Midgets. The game went 12 innings, with the Charmers winning 16-15. The Charmers, sponsored by Lemon Grove Woman's Club, is managed by Gwen Bierly and coached by Don Ford and Frank Moore.

In a third place tie are the Midgets and Cherubs, with Sizzlers, Lionettes and Spicers following.

The All-Star major and minor league teams will be announced next week.

Hollypark Gold Cup Prize is $100,000

It isn't often that a national championship is decided in one race, but that may be the case Saturday a Hollywood Park.

If Forego, the 1974 Eclipse Award winner and 132-pound highweight, is shipped West for the $150,000 Invitational Hollywood Gold Cup and a meeting with California heroes Stardust Mel and Ancient Title, Handicap Horse of the Year honors will be on the line.

Chances appear good that Forego, a unanimous pick as Horse of the Year in 1974, will make his West Coast debut in the mile and one-quarter Gold Cup, Hollypark's tradiional "Race of Champions."

Groza Gets Post With New Team

San Diego co-owners of the ABA basketball team, Frank Goldberg and Bud Fischer, told members of the press Tuesday that Alex Groza, former coach-general manager of the Conquistadors had accepted a post with their newly acquired unnamed team.

"He'll be director of personnel and director of operations," Fischer said. What you see on the floor is what Groza will put there. There'll be no general manager title," he said.

The conference was held at Fischer's Bush Wakker restaurant in Mission Valley.

Carlsbad Motocross Sunday; 12 Countries, 28,000 Miles

The score or so of dedicated World Championship-chasers that will assemble at Carlsbad Raceway in Southern California for the Hang Ten United States Motocross Grand Prix Sunday will at that point be right at the halfway point of a gruelling season. To have a chance at the coveted World 500cc Motocross Championship (acknowledged as the toughest crown to win in the world of off-road motorcycle racing) a rider must compete in a dozen different countries, spend most of the five-month season on the road and cover some 28,000 miles!

And even factory riders like Suzuki's Roger De Coster, Heikki Mikkola of the Husqvarna team and Yamaha's Ake Jonsson, can't use the luxury of air travel. European air schedules are not at all like the "bus-stop" timetables we enjoy in the States and even the superstars must spend countless hours behind the wheel of car or transporter.

In fact, that's why most of them love the Hang Ten Grand Prix. In addition to being the richest race on the Championship trail (with a rider prize fund of $30,000) it has the advantage of having the whole Atlantic Ocean between it and the maily-European bulk of the tour. The 14 hour flight from Europe means a welcome break from the normal routine.

In the five-month period from April to August, a Championship motocross racer pounds a trail from Switzerland to Italy, then north into Finland and 5000 miles east over the vast plains of Russia. From Moscow they must drive night and day to get back for the French Grand Prix a week later and then it's on to a plane for the Hang Ten Grand Prix at Carlsbad and the Canadian race the following weekend.

Then it's over the Atlantic again to finish off the season with races in Great Britain, Germany, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg!

No wonder Carlsbad's Hang Ten United States Grand Prix is the only chance that America's fans get to see these aces perform during the Championship season . . . they're just too busy for anything but the title rounds and Carlsbad is the only one in the United States.

New President For WTT Friars

G. Allan Kingston has been named president of the World Team Tennis San Diego Friars, it was announced by team owner Frank Mariani.

Kingston, 40, resigned last Friday as president of Hawaii in the WTT. He also was an owner of the Hawaii franchise and said that his stock had been submitted for sale.

"The position with the Friars offers me not only a personal opportunity but also a unique challenge," Kingston said. "It's a new team in a new and exciting league. My main responsibility at the start is to develop public enthusiasm in San Diego County for the team, its players and the WTT as a whole."

Although Hawaii averaged less than 1,000 fans a date last year, under Kingston this season the team has shown an average of 3500, enjoying one crowd of 6500 paid. The acquisition of Margaret Court and John Newcombe, engineered by Kingston, was a major factor in Hawaii's league-leading attendance.

Kingson said that Dennis Ralston would remain as general manager-coach of the Friars.

The Friars return to San Diego for matches on August 8, 9, 10 as part of a second three-day WTT spectacular involving eight teams at the Sports Arena.

Because It's There . . .

It might have been a short cut or it may have been malicious mischief.

Whatever, someone walked across the roof and hood of Richard Manteufel's Toyoto, parked at his home, Friday night or Saturday morning.

Mateufel, who lives at 1435 Madera, in Lemon Grove, told sheriff's deputies that it would cost $400 to have the dents taken out.

Dodgers Open Series In Stadium Tonight

The San Diego Padres will close out their June home schedule in the next week with Western Division rivals Los Angeles and San Francisco paying visits to San Diego Stadium.

The Padres will be squaring off against each club four times with the Dodgers in town for single games from tonight through Sunday. Then the Giants put the wraps on the final homestand of the month with four games in three days featuring a doubleheader on June 24 sandwiched between single affairs June 23 and June 25.

This week's outings with Los Angeles will be at 7 p.m. while the game on the 22nd will go at the normal Sunday time of 1 p.m. As for the games with the Giants, the two single games will get underway at 7 p.m. while the doubleheader on the 24h is slated for 6 p.m. Originally, the June 24 date was a 7 p.m. single game, but rainouts at the beginning of the season forced a re-scheduling for a twin bill.

"The way things are heating up in the Western Division, all of these games seem to gather a little more importnace as the days go by," Padre manager John McNamara said. "With the standings pretty well bunched the way they are, it's important that you win every series. A slight slip, no matter how slight it might appear, could mean a drastic drop in the standings.

Leading Teams

"Another factor we have to consider," McNamara added. "is that with the beginning of the four games with the Dodgers, we'll be playing the two leading clubs within our division (Los Angeles and Cincinnati) 15 of the next 18 games. This could be the most important part of the season for us. A good showing and we're hanging right in there. As for a slump, well, I don't even want to think about that."

Ingram Assumes Post of Mariners Head Coach

San Diego Mariner general manager Ron Ingram has been named head coach of the World Hockey Assn. team. The announcement was made by Mariner owner Joe Schwartz.

Ingram, who served as bench coach while Harry Howell was player-coach during the past season, will have the new title of coach and general manager of hockey operations.

"It was one of the most difficult decisions I've ever had to make," said Schwartz. "But with Harry planning to retire as a player, I don't feel two bench coaches are feasible."

Howell has expressed a desire to remain in coaching and is in contact with two other WHA teams.

"If nothing opens for him, I'd want to talk to him about a position with our organization," Schwartz said.

Under the direction of Ingram and Howell, San Diego finished a surprising second in the WHA's Western Division and gained the semi-final round of post-season playoffs. Pre-season selectors had almost unanimously ticketed the team for a cellar windup after two last place finishes in as many years while located first in New York and then New Jersey.

Ingram joined the Mariners last season as director of player personnel and added the title of general manager to his duties, Jan. 23. His past accomplishments consisted of three championships in three years as coach and general manager with Syracuse of the North American Hockey League from 1971-74.

He came to Syracuse after an 18-year playing career as a defenseman in the National, American and Western Leagues.

Purple Power Proves Best As 7-11 Takes Sox Title

By Paul Stark

Bancroft 7-11, managed by Martha Humphries who won her third straight championship, captured first place in the minors of the Spring Valley Bobby Sox League last week with a 15-2 mark.

No Hitter

On Monday Little Eden Produce behind the no-hit and six strikeout pitching of Lisa Jordan shutout Thomas & Son Disposal 10-0.

The Spring Valley Women's Club used the four hit and eight strikeout pitching of Sandy Chapman on Tuesday to beat the Spring Valley Merchants 3-1.

The Jean's Dance Studio Tigers, behind the hitting of Annalee Stout who went 3-4 and drove in seven runs, beat the Willenberg Realty Golddiggers 26-11.

On Wednesday Izuma Martz led Nome's Tropical Fish to their 9-6 win over Little Eden Produce by going 4-4 and driving in six runs.

The Bancroft 7-11 Purple Power beat the Sports Emporium Thunderbolts 21-11. Allie Humphries went 3-5 and drove in five runs for Bancroft 7-11.

3-Hitter

The pitching of Karen Humphries who hurled a three-hitter and fanned six and the hitting of Patty Setter who hit 3-3, including a home run and four RBI's led the Spring Valley Merchants to a 7-1 win over Delp Plastering on Thursday.

On Friday Pam Bertino and Renee Mitchell led Bargain Bin Market to a 14-11 win over Blanchard Realty with a combining batting record of 5-8 and eight runs driven in.

Marie Loya and Cinda Landrum collaborated on a two-hitter and fanned six to pitch the Sportland Maroon Mauraders to a 24-2 win over the Golddiggers.

The S.V. Women's Club on Saturday used the seven-hit and six-strikeout pitching of Patti Perettie to beat Nome's Tropical Fish 15-3 to run their record to 13-6.

Delp Plastering evened their record at 9-9 by beating Blanchard Realty 18-7. Blanchard suffered their sixth straight loss to run their record to 8-11.

Lori Netz and Chris Chapman combined on a two hitter and fanned seven to pitch Bargain Bin Market to a 10-4 win over Thomas Disposal, running their record to an even 10-10.

Title Clinched

Led by the pitching and hitting of Allie Humphries the Purple Power clinched first place with a 14-3 win over the Tigers. Miss Humphries hurled a three hitter and fanned 15 to run her season strikeout total to 150. With the bat she went 3-4, including a home run, and drove in five runs.

The Tom's Choice Meats Red Devils brought their record to 9-8 with a 7-6 win over the Thunderbolts who are now 3-14.

The Maroon Mauraders behind the hitting of Cindy Landrum beat the Goodbody Mortuary Frogs 25-6 to clinch second place with a 13½-3½ record. Miss Landrum had a perfect day hitting 5-5 and driving in seven runs. The Frogs record dipped to 5½-10½.

Mesa College Names 'Athletes of Year'

Ernest "Moose" Binggeli was named "Athlete of the Year" by the Athletic Department at Mesa College.

Binggeli, only a freshman, competed in football and wrestling, in which he was heavyweight champion in S. California.

He also was a starting defensive tackle on the Olympian football team.

Second in the balloting was J.C. All-American footballer, Ray Williams, who now attends San Diego State University. Other athletes most valuable in their respective sports were:

Paul Contreras, Baseball; Mark Bernhard, Basketball and Tim O'Regan, Cross Country.

Also Mike Bedoe, Golf; Craig Petersen, Tennis and Mike Cornell, Track and Field.

He said that when he returned home Saturday about noon he discovered the loss. He reportedly had left his auto unlocked.

Hernandez Tops Card At Coliseum Thursday

Coliesum fights will be advanced one night — to Thursday — this week only, it was decided by fight promoter Mickey Davies.

The decision was in deference to the featherweight championship card being staged on Friday at the Forum in Los Angeles. Many local fans will make the trip to see the Bobby Chason-Blanco. The winner of that scrap has been promised a chance for the title.

But in San Diego on Thursday night a commendable card is being organized headed by Rudy Hernandez, 19-year-old lightweight scrapper who will seek his 19th consecutive victory when he meets Arturo Leon, Arizona lightweight champion. Leon whipped Jimmy Heair causing his brief retirement. Leon later dropped a close decision to Randy Shields at the Olympic in Los Angeles.

last week

It was a drama dished up too many times in the boxing ring.

A rising young fighter approaching his peak is lacing a former contender who is on his way down.

San Diego's teenager, featherweight Manny Lujan outperformed Filipino Tanny Amancio so substantially that referee Fred Hayes stopped Ruben Olivares 15-round title meeting but more will make the trip to see San Diego's Art Hafey take on Yambito the fight at 2:45 of the 9th round of a bout scheduled for 10.

It was Jujan's 20th victory without a defeat. Amancio seemed perplexed by his inability to slow down the Claremont youngster and wore himself down by the time the fight was halfway through. Lujan was a half pound heavier than his opponent who was 125, and had considerable height and reach advantage. One round was even; the others went to Lujan.

In other scraps Basilio Onate KO'd Beto Gonzales in the third round of a scheduled six-round lightweight affair; Welterweight Armando Cordova stopped Davey Lopez at 1:59 of the third of a scheduled six-rounder and welterweight Jorge Torres took a decision over Abdul Bey.

Nationwide TV

Beginning July 11, Coliseum promoter Micky Davies and sportscaster Tom Harmon will team up for a pilot ring telecast from the Coliseum over the Hughes Television Network.

It may be the first of a series of nation-wide Coliseum shows weekly. The San Diego area will be blacked out. Harmon is sports director for the Hughes organization.

Championship Fight Friday On Closed TV

San Diegans will have a chance to see Friday's 15-round featherweight championship between Bobby Chacon and Ruben Olivares live on closed television at the Community Concourse.

On the same card is a 10-round featherweight contender's fight between San Diego's Art Hafey and Yambito Blanco of Nicaragua, followed by a 10-round bantamweight scrap between Carlos Zarate of Mexico City and Oriando Amores of Panama.

Zarate is no. 2 and Amores is rated no. 5.

All three matches will be shown in full color at the Concourse starting at 8 p.m. Gates open at 6 p.m. Tickets are $8 and $10 and are available at the Concourse and at Ticketron outlets.

Loot $1,280

While John E. Roberts, a student, of 8080 Golden ave., Lemon Grove, was away from home, a burglar entered through a rear bathroom window and took away equipment worth $1,280, he told sheriff's deputies.

Loot included a stereo receiver and tape deck and other items. The loss occurred June 12.

S.V. Park Gets $147,768 If Governor Signs

Spring Valley Park will get $147,768 in improvements if Gov. Edmond Brown approves a county budget for state-funded expenditures. A County joint conference committee sent the $40.8 million park and highway budget to the Governor on Monday.

$6.3 million of the total budget is earmarked for 24 park projects including the one in Spring Valley.

The local share will finance two new tennis courts and an 11,000 sq. ft. community center built into existing structures now used by the county animal shelter on Jamacha blvd.

The animal shelter is expected to move into new facilities on Sweetwater rd. near the Bay Freeway intersection in December.

The community center will be equipped with a dining area, exercise room, health center, senior citizens lounge and a 400-seat auditorium, according to Herb Ketell, advisor to the Spring Valley Park and Recreation District.

Vines, Marble And Bundy at Tennis Academy

COTO DE CAZA, CALIF. — Three former tennis superstars, May Sutton Bundy, Alice Marble and Ellsworth Vines, are scheduled as guest lecturers at the upcoming session of the United States Tennis Academy (USTA) June 23-27. All are former U. S. and Wimbledon champions. They will lecture on the changes, good and bad, occurring in the sport over the decades.

Bundy will appear on the opening day of the session, Monday, June 23, at 2 p.m. Marble and Vines will speak at 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. respectively on Thursday, June 26. All three will deliver their lectures and hold question and answer periods in the multimedia auditorium at The Vic Braden Tennis College, site of the USTA.

Academy sessions are held four times yearly at the Tennis College in Coto De Caza for the purpose of credentialing tennis teaching professionals. However it is not necessary to be a tennis instructor to attend.

"It can be a great learning experience for anyone," emphasized Vic Braden, "headmaster" of the Vic Braden Tennis College and President of the USTA.

Each previous USTA session has been sold out. There are a few openings left for the June 23-27 session. Reservations can be booked by calling (714) 586-0761.

Apart from the USTA, The Vic Braden Tennis College offers two, three and five-day courses to the general public. The complex is located at Coto De Caza 17 miles east of the Interstate 5 El Toro rd. offramp.

Sports Notables Due Here for NACDA Meet

These will be the chief topics as the nation's college and university athletic directors gather in San Diego for the tenth annual convention of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athetics (NACDA).

While the financial crisis facing intercollegiate athletics will be the key topic at the June 23-25 meeting at the Town and Country Hotel, it won't be the sole area of concern.

"Offensive Lineup for Intercollegiate Athletics," a panel program, will feature speakers Dan Towler, former All-Pro with the Los Angeles Rams currently Assistant to the President at Cal State-L.A., Theo Heap, AD at Mesa College and President of the National Junior College Athletic Assn., Mike Lude of Kent State and Rix Yard, Tulane's athletic director.

Two known sports "voices" will also visit NACDA's tenth annual convention. Dick Enberg, voice of the California Angels, will be the featured speaker at Monday's Hall of Fame luncheon, during which 16 athletic directors will be honored.

Another Tourney For Karas Aid

Ron East, former Charger, is in charge of another golf tournament to aid the Emil Karas family.

Karas died last year of cancer and did not leave enough to help the couple's two children through college.

The tourney will be at Whispering Palms on June 27 and the $50 fee will cover the cost of golf and the dinner following. Goal is 108 golfers who will join 36 professional athletes in the tourney.

Sunday Set for J.C.C. Tay-Sachs Screening

A community screening clinic at the Jewish Community Center, 4079 54th st., will conduct simple blood tests on Sunday to locate possible carriers of Tay-Sachs disease.

A fatal, incurable, but preventable disorder that strikes infants around six months old and destroys the nervous system, Tay-Sachs disease is carried by one in 30 persons of Eastern European Jewish ancestry and one in 300 non-Jews.

The mass screening is held from 4 to 7 p.m.

The Tay-Sachs Disease Prevention Program based at University Hospital has found approximately 50 individuals with the Tay-Sachs gene among more than 1,000 persons tested in the county this year, reports Dr. Kenneth Lyons Jones, program director.

A voluntary fee of $6 is requested to help defray testing expenses, but nobody will be refused the test for lack of funds, said Mrs. Cynthia Sucov, program director.

Revenue-Share Fund Use Outlined by County

County government will receive $14,161,637 in federal revenue sharing funds from July 1, 1975 to June 30, 1976.

Last week, the County Board of Supervisors announced a general breakdown of expenditures of the federal purse for the new fiscal year.

Some $2,874,932 has been planned as a capital expenditure for public safety projects. These funds will pay for such improvements as the Forrester Creek Flood Control Channel, remodeling of Escondido Court, construction of a new juvenile court facility and four new Superior Court rooms.

Some $392,512 has been planned for environmental protection projects, including a land fill project at Otay.

Recreation projects have been allotted $1,280,898 and include such projects as land acquisition for parks.

Multipurpose and general government projects have been allocated $3,113,295. Planned expenditures include the remodeling of the County Administration Center.

Under planned expenditures for operating/maintenance costs money will be dispersed as follows: public safety, $488,000; health, $2,562,000; recreation, $305,000; social services for aged or poor, $2,745,000; and financial administration, $400,000.

Operating and maintenance expenditures total $6.5 million which is divided among 140 programs and includes such projects as health clinics, senior citizens programs, day care centers, substance abuse multi-purpose centers and special services for ethnic minorities.

Mex., U.S. Meet Here for Sister Cities Conference

500 visitors from 195 cities in Mexico and the United States will converge upon San Diego late in July for the 12th annual International Convention of the United States/Mexico Sister City Association.

The five-day event, bearing the theme "Communication through Friendship", is held at the Royal Inn at the Wharf, beginning July 30 with official opening remarks delivered by San Diego Mayor Pete Wilson.

The first Sister Cities conference was held in Guadalajara, Mexico in 1957, under the auspices of President Eisenhower's "People to People" program.

The convention will be highlighted by several internationally known speakers, music, entertainment and tours. according to Mrs. Norma Ague, general chairman. Many events will be open to the public by reservation.

Marijuana Cultivator

Kenneth Gordon Patterson, 23, 9233 Kenwood dr., Spring Valley, was charged with cultivating marijuana in his corn patch near his home.

Sheriff's deputies found 26 marijuana plants, a hash pipe and cigarette papers when they came to interrogate him regarding the garden plants about 6 p.m. on June 9.

He will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court.

UCSD Courses To Study Zoo, Sea Residents

The "residents" of the San Diego Zoo and Sea World can provide more than entertainment for San Diegans and visitors this summer, according to a zoologist who will be leading two UCSD Extension courses.

Alvin Brereton will take members of his class "Mammals of the San Diego Zoo" on trips to the Zoo to teach such concepts as convergent and parallel evolution, "adaptive radiation," and natural selection.

The course begins June 28 at the Otto Center Auditorium near the Zoo.

A separate educational venture is the extension course "Aquatic Mammals and Fish at Sea World" which meets on Tuesday and Thursday mornings for four weeks starting Tuesday. The class will meet at the park's main gate at 8 p.m. that day.

An enrollment fee of $54, including admission to the Zoo, is charged for the Zoo course. The fee for Sea World is $62 which includes a year-round pass to the park.

'Fear of Injury' Charge Made

Two youths are charged with having forced a Monte Vista High school student to turn his money over to them under fear of injury on June 4.

Ronald G. Wise, 15, of 3189 Fair Acres, Jamul, told Sheriff's deputies that Alfonso Lathan, Jr. 18, of 644 San Juan st., Spring Valley and Ron N. Stanford, 18, accosted him in the high school locker room; grabbed him by his shirt and shook him after demanding his wallet.

Coaches were called who notified police. According to sheriff's reports, Lathan admitted taking the money.

He will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court.

He Stood To Peck

Because of a leg injury received during World War I, Ernest Hemingway did a large portion of his writing standing up and pecking away at his typewriter.

Van Deerlin Spends Billions—Marden

Wes Marden, congressional candidate, stated that "Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin voted recently in favor of a Federal Budget Deficit of 70 Billion Dollars."

"In the biggest spending vote ever to come before the House of Representatives, Congressman Van Deerlin voted for the first budget resolution, H. Con. Res. 2188, which calls for $368.2 billion in spending and a $70 billion deficit.

"You may ask what is 70 billion dollars," Marden continued. "If you laid a trail of dollar bills, 70 billion of them from end to end, this trail of dollar bills would stretch more than 6.6 million miles. It would reach to the moon and back more than 13 times."

Marden said, "The $70 billion deficit for which Congressman Van Deerlin voted is a peace time deficit. It is larger than the deficits for any of the years we were fighting in Vietnam, and larger than the deficits for any years during the Korean War and World War II."

"The $368.2 billion spending budget for which Congressman Van Deerlin voted averages out to about $6,772 for each American family, Marden said.

Carvings Missing

Twelve Philippine wood carvings, varying 7 to 8 inches in height, were taken from the premises of Daniel John Schantzen, of 6794 Central ave., Lemon Grove, on June 10, police reported.

The value of the dozen carvings was set at $210 by Schantzen.

NOTICE OF DEFAULT AND ELECTION TO SELL UNDER DEED OF TRUST

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That REAL PROPERTY TRUST DEED CORPORATION, a California Corporation of San Diego, California, is Trustee under a Deed of Trust dated May 9th, 1974, executed by ROBERT HILLIARD LEWIS also known as ROBERT HILLARD LEWIS, and FRANCES F. LEWIS, husband and wife as Trustor, to secure certain obligations in favor of L. K. ARNOLD and BEATRICE B. ARNOLD, husband and wife, as joint tenants, as Beneficiary, recorded May 23, 1974, File No. 74-134989, in Book 1974, Official Records of San Diego County, California, describing land therein as:

The South 70 feet of the North 210 feet of the East 254 feet of the East Half of Lot 24, Subdivision No. 3 of Lot 12, Rancho Mission, according to the Map thereof No. 5 of Licensed Surveyor's Maps filed in the office of the Recorder of said San Diego County, March 23, 1892. EXCEPTING THEREFROM the Easterly 20 feet thereof.

Said obligations including one promissory note for the original principal sum of $6,000.00:

That the beneficial interest under such Deed of Trust and the obligations secured thereby are now owned by the undersigned;

That a breach of, and a default in, the obligations for which such Deed of Trust is security has occurred in that Payment has not been made of:

1. The sum of $1,387.44 advanced to Colonial Mortgage Service Co. on first trust deed and note.

2. Any sums advanced by beneficiary under the terms and provisions of the above described Deed of Trust.

That by reason thereof, the undersigned has executed and delivered to said Trustee a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and has deposited with said Trustee such Deed of Trust and all documents evidencing obligations secured thereby, and has declared and does hereby declare all sums secured thereby immediately due and payable, and has elected and does hereby elect to cause the trust property to be sold to satisfy the obligations secured thereby, subject only to the right of reinstatement as provided by law.

L. K. Arnold
Beatrice B. Arnold

NOTICE

You may have the right to cure the default described herein and reinstate your mortgage or deed of trust. Section 2924C of the Civil Code permits certain defaults to be cured upon the payment of the amounts required by that section without requiring payment by you of that portion of principal and interest which would not be due had no default occurred. Where reinstatement is possible, if your default is not cured within three months following the recording of this notice, your right to reinstatement will terminate and your property may be sold.

To determine if reinstatement is possible and the amount, if any, necessary to cure your default, contact the beneficiary or mortgagee. The name and address of the beneficiary or mortgagee as of the date of this notice is L. K. Arnold and Beatrice B. Arnold at c/o Realty and Mortgage Company, 3147 El Cajon Boulevard, San Diego, California 92104. L.G. Review, June 19, 26, July 3 & 10, 1975

State Employment Picture Looks Dimmer in May

California's unemployment rate in May climbed to 10.6 per cent, up from 10 per cent in April.

In comparison, the federal unemployment rate increased from 8.9 to 9.2 per cent.

75,900 more state people found jobs, according to Jim Lorenz, director of California's Employment Development Department, but the employment increase was less than usual for this time of year.

"Better weather has stopped the decline in overall employment," Lorenz said, "but job opportunities are not keeping pace with the continuing high number of jobseekers. This includes new entrants to the labor market as well as those laid off."

Total unemployed in May was 954,200. Of these, 740,556 were claiming unemployment compensation. A year ago, when the jobless rate was 6.9 per cent, total unemployment was 604,100, of whom 371,889 were claiming benefits.

Total employed in May went up to 8,509,900 — but was still 81,200 less than in May, 1974.

Most of the increase over April was in agriculture, where seasonal gains were expected, boosting farm employment by 47,400 jobs to 298,500. But this was 12,300 below the number in farm work last May.

Nonfarm jobs increased by 37,000 to 7,809,100. Last year, the May increase was 95,100 and 51,600 more persons were employed.

SGS Realty Merges With Berg Enterprises

SGS Real Estate Co., Inc. with offices in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, and its companion mortgage company have entered into a preliminary agreement to become part of Berg Enterprises, Inc. (American Stock Exchange), the nation's second largest real estate and mortgage banking company. The announcement was made by John Stenbeck, chairman of SGS, last week.

Closing is expected to take place in July.

The nine real estate offices and mortgage facility of the eight-year-old company will continue to be managed by Stenbeck and his partners, Larry and Joseph Garzenelli.

Stenbeck sees the transaction as an important stepping stone in the expansion of SGS in San Diego and the surrounding region, which is one of the most active real estate markets in the country.

The acquisition also represents a major step in Berg's continuing expansion in California. The company already operates Valley Realty and Value Realty in northern California, and Valley Realty in Orange County.

Headquartered in New Jersey, Berg Enterprises, Inc. also has divisions in Florida, Texas, Arizona, Nevada and New York.

L.G. Liquor Store Robbery Nets $150

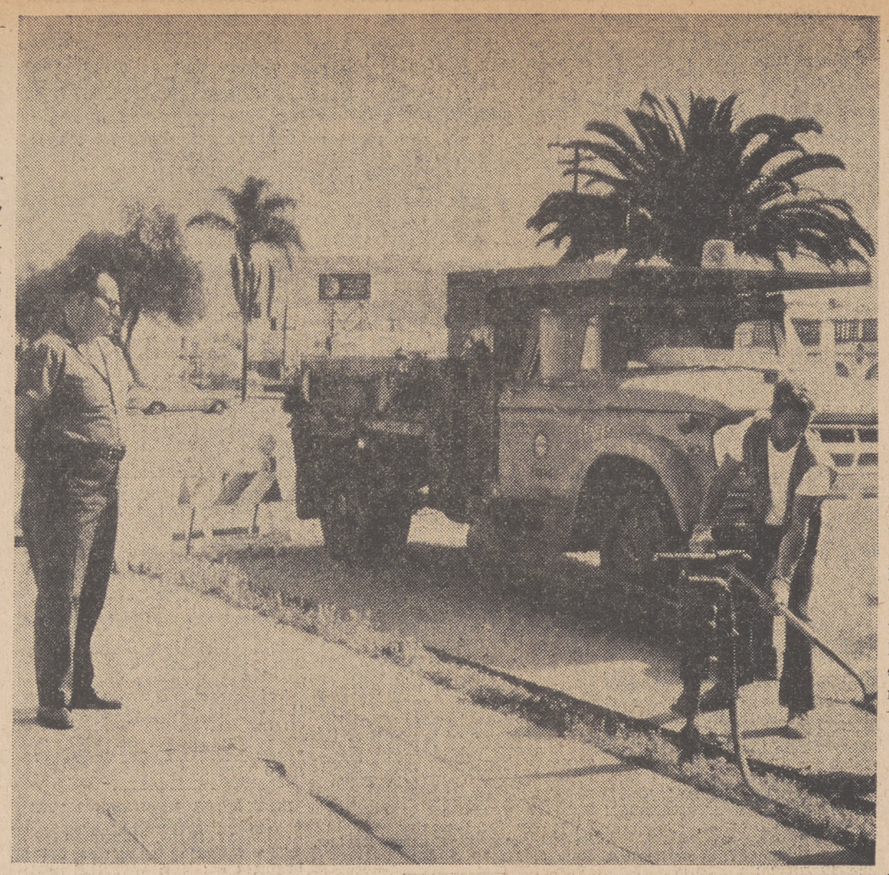
A white male, about 20, used a .38 cal. revolver to force the clerk of the Windmill Liquor store at 8291 Broadway, Lemon Grove, to hand over $150 which was in the store's cash register before midnight on June 12.

The clerk, Raymond Ora Wright, of Spring Valley, said the robber crouched on the clerk's side of the counter and directed the holdup.

"If you don't want to get hurt do as I say," he reportedly said.

Dan Gordon Sarff of Spring Valley, came in while the holdup was in progress and he, too, was threatened.

The thief took the money and fled after ordering the men not to come outside.



PATIENCE APLENTY — Robert L. Browne, left, who operates an appliance shop at 3282 Main st., in Lemon Grove, watches a workman restore curb in front of his shop. He recalled that nearly 20 years ago he had appealed to the County for the curb's repair but was told that the curb could not be cut without a permit. Browne explained that there was no curb — that it had completely eroded away. He was told his best bet was to get three bids, accept the lowest, and pay the bill himself.
As a past president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, he felt the possibility of getting the county to repair its property was futile—until a few days ago when men and equipment drove up, and presto!, the job was done.

Water Data Filed on Proposed SDG&E Nuclear Power Plant

The environmental data statement on the water supply phase for the proposed Sundesert Nuclear Plant near Blythe, California, has been filed with the State Public Utilities Commission.

San Diego Gas & Electric Company said the two-volume statement, prepared for the company by Bookman-Edmonston Engineering, Inc., will be used by the PUC to prepare the draft environmental impact report (EIR) for the Water Supply Phase.

SDG&E proposes to build the Sundesert Nuclear Plant on Palo Verde Mesa, south of Blythe.

First Unit, 1985

The first unit, with a capacity of approximately 900 megawatts, is to go into service in 1985. A second unit of approximately the same size is scheduled to go into service about two to three years later.

Each of the two units will require an estimated 17,000 acre-feet of cooling water per year. The company proposes to use irrigation drainage water from the Palo Verde outfall drain, which normally returns the water to the Colorado River.

In exchange for the drainage water used for the first unit, SDG&E will allow 17,000 acre-feet of fresher water purchased from the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California to flow down river.

In exchange for drainage water used for the second unit, the company may reduce productivity on portions of company-owned farm lands and allow an equal amount of fresh water presently used for these farm lands to also flow down the Colorado River.

Lower Salinity

The environmental data statement said that a principal impact from the water supply phase of the project will be a "beneficial reduction in the salinity of the water flowing in the Colorado River below the Palo Verde Irrigation Distict."

The statement also pointed out that while the proposed project may require a reduction in the amount of land under agricultural production, measures will be taken to mitigate adverse environmental impacts to adjacent lands.

Preparation of conceptual designs for the nuclear plant and preparation of the environmental impact statement for the project as a whole are progressing rapidly, the company said.

ARB Makes '77 Smog Standards Toughest Ever

The federal Environmental Protection Agency recently approved California's tough, new automobile smog standards for 1977 model year passenger cars.

Under the new regulations, which were adopted March 18 by the ARB, emissions of hydrocarbons will be reduced from the current level of 0.9 grams per mile to 0.41 grams per mile, and nitrogen oxide emissions will be reduced from 2.0 grams per mile to 1.5 grams per mile.

"We expect that the new standards will add only about five dollars to the cost of cars produced for California, and we are also hopeful that we will get cars with substantially improved gasoline mileage," said ARB chairman Tom Quinn.

California is the only state permitted by the federal Clean Air Act to have more stringent anti-smog standards than the rest of the nation. The exception is made because of the acute smog problem in the South Coast Air Basin and because of the heavy contribution of motor vehicle traffic to air pollution.

Cuyamaca Gets Grassland Gift

Nearly 42 acres of grassland adjacent to Cuyamaca Reservoir will be added to Cuyamaca Rancho State Park, 40 miles east of San Diego, as a result of an agreement with the owner of the property, Margaret Minshall. The land and several ranch buildings, valued at $152,700, have been acquired for $55,000 from the department's Opportunity Purchase Fund.

The balance of $97,700 is a gift to the state from Ms. Minshall, a former school teacher of the area, who will continue to live on the property, which has been reserved for her as a life estate.

L.M. Rotarian Gets Gov. Post

Glenn E. Murdock was elected top Rotary official for his home area by delegates to the Rotary International convention meeting last week in Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

He is a retired superintendent of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District.

Murdock is one of 357 men from 151 countries of the Rotar world elected as a district governor for the 1975-76 year. As governor of District 534, he will coordinate some 40 clubs.

Health Director Advises Immunization

Measle Outbreak On Rise

Parts of the county are experiencing a moderate increase in cases of measles, rubella, according to a statement released last week by the County of San Diego Department of Public Health.

Dr. Donald G. Ramras, acting director of public health, said that reports from schools and private physicians in the Chula Vista and El Cajon areas indicate that cases of measles are numerous in those communities. Other parts of the county are believed to be affected also.

Although no official reports have come into the Health Department office concerning the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area, Dr. Ramras cautioned local residents that vaccinations especially for local children should not be overlooked due to the close proximity of the reported increases.

Tip of Iceberg?

"A total of 27 cases of measles were reported among all county residents during the month of May, compared with 5 last year," Dr. Ramras noted. "So far this year, 52 cases have been reported, compared with only 13 during the same time period last year. These figures are only indicators, since many cases are not seen by a physician and, as a result, go unreported.

"In addition, there have been a significant number of unofficially reported cases, especially in the Chula Vista area.

"Measles, which is known also as the red or ten-day measles, can be a serious illness in young people. It may cause complications such as pneumonia, encephalitis or inection of the middle ear.

Immunize

"We are urging all parents, unless they know that their child has had the disease, to review the child's immunization record," Dr. Ramras emphasized. "Youngsters who have not had the disease or been vaccinated should be immunized. Parents who are in doubt should check with their physician.

"Older youngsters should not be overlooked, since an unusually large proportion of the cases have been occurring in the 10-14 year age group.

"Girls who are pregnant or thought to be pregnant should not be immunized because of possible adverse effects."

Dr. Ramras said that any young child who was immunized before twelve months of age should be revaccinated. "Studies have shown that children vaccinated for measles at this early age may not have long-term immunity to the disease.

"Children in need of immunization should be taken to the family physician or a public health immunization clinic."

Nearest county Health Center is the East San Diego branch at 5202 University ave. Immunization clinic for children at that branch is held every Monday from 1 to 4 p.m.

'Fault' No Criterion For DMV Suspensions

Requests for hearings on driver license suspensions mandated by California's new Compulsory Financial Responsibility Law are averaging more than 700 a month, State Motor Vehicles Director Herman Sillas has announced.

But most of the requests are turned down or withdrawn, he said, because the law does not provide for hearings in a majority of the cases.

This is probably because many California motorists do not fully understand the intent of the new Compulsory Financial Responsibility Law.

But fault has nothing to do with the suspension actions DMV must take, he pointed out. He said that only the courts may determine who was at fault for a particular accident.

"Under the new law, we take suspension actions for only two reasons: failure to report the accident to DMV when it is in fact a reportable accident, or failure to furnish proof of financial responsibility following the accident."

Sillas defined a reportable accident as one which originates on a public street or highway and someone suffers property damage in excess of $250, or someone is injured or killed.

The California Vehicle Code does not authorize hearings for persons suspended because of failure to report an accident. Such a person may regain his driving privilege simply by sending the required report to DMV.

Hearings are auhorized for persons facing suspension for failure to furnish proof of financial responsibility but only if they request hearings on the grounds that (1) the accident was not reportable, or (2) they were not the driver or owner of a vehicle involved in the accident, or (3) they had in effect some type of financial responsibility at the time of the accident.

Drivers and owners usually furnish proof of financial responsibility by means of the liability insurance policy, Sillas said. There are other methods, such as depositing $35,000 with DMV, but for the overwhelming majority the insurance policy offers the only way to comply with the law.

"The old Security Following Accident law was intended to persuade uninsured drivers and owners, after they were considered to be at fault for accident, to pay others for the damages they caused.

"The new law is intended to increase the percentage of insured drivers and owners of vehicles in this State," Sillas explained.

Watered Chitterlings are No Bargain, Williams Says

False labeling by meat packers has resulted in San Diego shoppers paying as much for frozen pork chitterlings as they would for some better grades of beef and poultry, City Councilman Leon Williams revealed last week.

Williams said that meat packing industry practices of including frozen water in the weight of pork chitterlings has misled shoppers into thinking chitterlings are less expensive than some cuts of chicken, turkey, hamburger and beef.

He said checks by the County Department of Weights and Measures indicates the actual weight of the chitterlings in frozen packages vary from the printed net weight by as much as 50 per cent.

"A shopper buying a 10-pound package of frozen chitterlings at 59 cents a pound is actually getting only five pounds of meat in some cases at an actual cost of $1.18 a pound," Williams said.

Williams said checks of chitterling products processed under six brand names sold in the area markets showed packages to have less actual contents than the net weight listed.

"Until caseloads of other consumer fraud cases can be cleared," he said, "the buying public should be aware that what they may be buying more of is frozen water than chitterlings."

Recent checks by the department have resulted in one packer revising the weight listed on the package to more accurately reflect the actual contents.
